PRESS RELEASE

La Paz County, AZ – The La Paz Economic Development Corporation along with its client River Fever Investments LLC., DBA Spanky's RV and Marine are excited to announce that River Fever Investments LLC., has entered into an agreement to purchase 3 parcels of property commonly referred to as the Alewine Property from the Town of Parker, AZ. River Fever Investments LLC., plans to use the property to expand Spanky's RV and Marine from its current location at 1012 Joshua Avenue, Parker, AZ., Vincent (Skip) Becker, President and CEO of The La Paz EDC said "This project is exactly what the Town of Parker, Town Council had in mind when it purchased the Alewine Property for redevelopment purposes. This project will increase sales tax revenue, it will increase foot traffic to surrounding businesses. Spanky's will be a beautiful addition to the Riverside Drive area". Don and Donna Rountree owners of River Fever Investments LLC. DBA Spanky's RV and Marine said, "they are happy that the Town of Parker has gone to great lengths to assure the Alewine property be used in a fashion that would be beneficial to the community and its visitors. With this opportunity, Spanky's RV and Marine will be part of what is sure to be a positive growth period for the Town of Parker, La Paz County and the surrounding area".
